Conference Events

SATURDAY, JUNE 7, 2014

9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. Private Guided Tour of Pyramids of Teotihuacan and The Shrine of our Lady of Guadalupe $75 per person. Includes a stop for lunch at a local restaurant, Monte Cristo (lunch on your own). Transportation will be provided.

Few cities in the world have been considered worthy of being inhabited by Gods but Teotihuacan is such a city. Thousands of years of civilization, which today can still be felt along its wide avenues projecting out towards the cardinal points of the universe had to pass before this place could be elevated to the ranks of a mythical city. This half day tour will take you to the archaeological site of Teotihuacan, which is one of the most impressive sites of the Aztec World. Located only one hour outside of Mexico City, you'll have the chance to see the complexities of Aztec treasures.

You'll also visit the Shrine of our Lady of Guadalupe, the most visited religious site in Latin America. Built in the 16th Century, this Shrine is a wonderful example of Spanish Baroque Art. In 1531, a 'Lady from Heaven' appeared to a poor Indian at Tepeyac, a hill northwest of Mexico City. She identified herself as the Mother of the True God, instructed him to have the bishop build a temple on the site and left an image of herself imprinted miraculously on his tilma.

SUNDAY, JUNE 8, 2014

1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m. Private Guided Tour of Historical Center $45 per person

Mexico City's Centro Historico was once called Tenochtitlán, founded in 1325 atop an island in Lake Texcoco. The seers of the wandering Aztec tribe had received a vision, telling them to found their great city in a spot where an eagle, perched on a cactus, was devouring a serpent. Their quest ended here.

The lake has long since been drained, though the eagle still flies over the old island – which is today the enormous Plaza del la Constitución (more commonly called the Zócalo) – as part of an enormous Mexican flag. The seat of government since Aztec times, the Centro Historico is surrounded by fantastic architecture from every age: The Templo Mayor, an Aztec Temple that was once North America's most important; the Metropolitan Cathedral, the largest and oldest cathedral in the Western Hemisphere; and the Torre Latinoamericana, once the tallest building in Latin America, and still one of the world's largest earthquake-resistant structures.

The Historic Center stretches on for some 700 blocks. It is, packed with museums, parks, hotels, restaurants, and nightlife options; it is more populous than many countries and is almost a world unto itself. An afternoon's exploration offers a taste of its offerings; a lifetime would not be long enough to see it all.

7:00 p.m. IIIFest at Hacienda de los Morales. Reception at 7:30 p.m.; Buffet Dinner at 8:30 p.m.
(III Members and Guests Only Please. Separately ticketed event. See registration form. Transportation will be provided from the Four Seasons Hotel Mexico.)

Conference Events

MONDAY, JUNE 9, 2014

7:30 p.m. – 8:30 p.m. Legendary Mexico City Dinner at the world-famous Franz Mayer Museum. A guided tour of the Museum prior to the Legendary Dinner is included. (Separately ticketed event for Conference Delegates and III Members and Guests Only Please. See registration form. Transportation will be provided from the Four Seasons Hotel Mexico.)

TUESDAY, JUNE 10, 2014

9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. Private Guided Tour of National Museum of Anthropology $50 per person

It's easy to spend an entire day exploring the nearly 20 acres that make up Mexico City's most-visited museum. Opened in 1964, the National Museum of Anthropology houses the largest collection of traditional Mexican art in the world – including the famous Aztec Stone of the Sun. Each of the Museum's 23 permanent exhibit halls is dedicated to a different cultural region or indigenous group, making it an ideal place to learn about Mexico's rich history and the traditions of its diverse capital city.

7:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. Reception and Tour at Chapultepec Castle. (Complimentary to all Conference Delegates and Guests. Transportation will be provided from the Four Seasons Hotel Mexico.)

North America may not be known for its regal royalty or holding court, but Chapultepec Castle in Mexico City – the only palace on the continent – is definitely the real deal. Located more than 7,000 feet above sea level, Chapultepec has housed sovereigns, served as a military academy and was even an observatory. In 1996 the castle was transformed into Capulet Mansion for the movie Romeo and Juliet.

Until 1939, Chapultepec Castle served as the presidential residence for the President of Mexico. When the residence was moved elsewhere, the Castle became home to both the National Museum of History and the National Museum of Cultures. A stroll through these halls, followed by a tour of lush castle grounds is a perfect way to spend a Mexico City afternoon.

Note: Please register for these tours online at www.iiiiglobal.org.
